

PLO (Programmed Learning Outcomes)

1. Master professional competencies and skills to become an effective teacher, capable of addressing the educational needs at global level.
2. Attain proficiency in using ICT tools & digital resources to enhance teaching and learning.
3. Integrate various teaching methods, strategies, and approaches that are inclusive & adaptable to the socio-cultural context of ensuring effective learning outcomes.
4. Cultivate a commitment to lifelong learning & professional development, with an emphasis on engaging with community-based educational initiatives.
5. Build sensitivity to social issues, challenges & opportunities within the local context, fostering a transformative role in the community's development through education.
6. 6. Analyze the contemporary trends and challenges facing the education system, particularly those unique to the locality, such as multilingual classrooms and access to resources.
7. Embrace democratic and social values that resonate with the local culture, inspiring students to be responsible and active citizens within their communities.
8. Utilize principles of educational psychology to understand & address the individual differences of learners, particularly in multi-grade & diverse classroom settings.